Reflecting beauty and enthusiasm

"—'tis only music's strains Can sweetly soothe."

George E. Anspaugh, principal

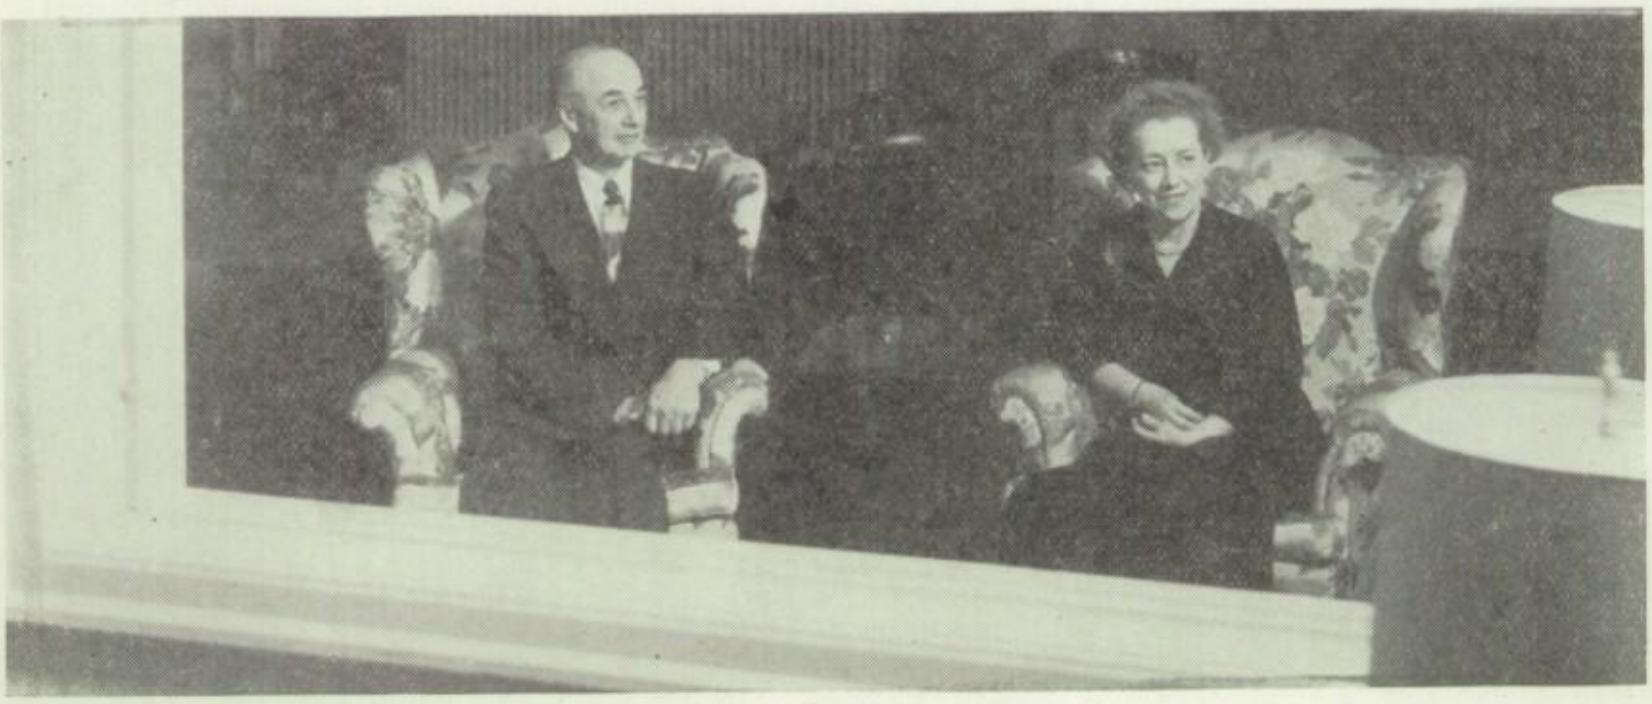
"He is greatest whose strength carries up the most hearts by the attraction of his own."

Helen L. Powers
assistant principal

"—none named thee but to praise."



Our genial administrators plan all good things for Sullivan

Delightful task! to rear the tender thought, to teach the young idea how to shoot, to pour the fresh instruction over the mind, to breathe the enlivening spirit, and to fix the generous purpose in the glowing heart.

—Thomson

The main office is the heart of the school. From here emanates the happy, cooperative spirit that we all feel. MRS. MARY DOUD heads the group of clerks and student helpers. Assisting her are Miss Gleason and Mrs. Twomey. One can always be sure of courtesy and cooperation when one goes to the office. A hint is all that is needed, and one's desires are graciously fulfilled.

MISS MARGUERITE O'CONNELL, attendance officer, trains her assistants to be courteous and helpful. It is the work of her office to encourage young folks to come to school on time and stay all day. And they like it! "Correction does much, but encouragement does more. Encouragement after a censure is as the sun after a shower." So says Goethe, who must have known Miss O'Connell.

Judging from the smiles of MRS. HELEN KUSTNER and her helpers, the books must balance. Of course they do! For many years our school treasurer has had an enviable record in her efficient management of the complicated finances of our institution. Mrs. Kustner is now training Miss Gleason to take her place in 105.

If everyone who wanted to talk to MR. FRED RESEK stood in line, the line would include all 1200 Sullivan students and would extend nearly around the block. He is the school Placement Counselor, but he adds many duties to this. Advice on college and scholarship are as important to him as advice on jobs. He arranges assemblies with nearly all extra-curricular activities. Want something? Ask Mr. Resek.

Joy in good fellowship and pride in achievement are reflected in the smiling faces of the January class officers.

"—to feed were best at home; From thence the sauce to meat is ceremony; Meeting were bare without it."

Echoing from the rafters of the auditorium, the traditional strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" marked the beginning of the end for the seniors. Yes, graduation exercises brought to a close four unforgettable years of work, play, laughter, and tears. But not even the excitement of commencement could wipe away the memory of the events leading up to this, the climax of their high school career.

Probing into their high school days they remember the agony of being a "freshie" and being the brunt of the upper classmen's perverted sense of humor; the swelled head that was a part of their sophomore year along with the grasshoppers from the biology class and the triangles and circles from the geometry class. Traces of their junior days are yet visible . . . an old typewriter ribbon, a test tube and lab apron and a "log" from the trig class. Their senor year is still sharply etched in their minds . . . the riotous fun at the Senior Party in the Gym; the work and sweat and joy of producing the Senior Play, "Arsenic and Old Lace"; the Mother's Tea; the Prom at the Belmont Hotel where they danced dreamily to the music of Johnny Stewart and finally the Senior Luncheon at the Ridgeview Hotel.

As the orchestra picks up the notes of the recessional, a door closes on a part of their lives . . . their high school days are now a part of the past . . . but a new and broader door is open to them as they gaze into the future with mingled feelings of regret and happy expectancy.

RANGERS: Exhausted, but mission completed, the ever faithful RANGER staggers in from his perilous journey to receive a heartwarming smile and a pat on the back from the little guy in the green cap. Rogers' Rangers are boys with an "E" average chosen for their dependability, character and personality. Hat's off to the Rangers! SAFETY UNIT: Who looks out for the safety of the school? Who opens the doors for the eager students during a fire drill? Who helps the hall guards patrol the halls? Who?? Why the SAFETY UNIT of course.
FRANKLIN CLUB:

Penalty tickets and corridor passes,
Cut slips when we cut our classes;
Tickets and programs for all events
Are printed by those talented gents.
The presses are run by our friend "POP"
Who keeps the FRANKLIN CLUB on top.

Guardians

HALL GUARDS: Under the supervision of Mrs. Gladys Hay, the Sullivan HALL GUADS patrol the halls like faithful sentries at their posts. Their motto . . . Semper Paratus (with tardy tickets), their theme song . . . "Gotta Pass?" STUDENT COUNCIL: "The meeting will now come to order." The STUDENT COUNCIL, nucleus of the school, is a junior government working and planning for the betterment of Sullivan. The lunchroom supervision, our annual dance, disposing of money raised by the S.S.S.; all fall upon the shoulders of the STUDENT COUNCIL, who always come through. PROJECTION CREW: "Lights, camera, action!" are welcome words in any class, because they mean that the boys in the PROJECTION CREW have brought a movie which educates as it entertains. These boys are also responsible for the records in the assembly hall during lunch periods.

Indispensables

We can thank the Servettes, the Socialization Committee, and the Stage Crew for many of the "added attractions" which brighten our school day.

The girls in the white blouses, dark skirts, and perky aprons who act as Sullivan's official hostesses at parties and teas are the Servettes. These girls are easily distinguished by their winning smiles and gracious manners.

Who plans those swell after-school dances and the other activities which create a friendlier atmosphere around Sullivan? That's right, the Socialization Committee does the job, and very well, too.

Practicing a skit and need the assembly hall next period? Well, in that case, stop in at room 324 where the Stage crew office is located. A crew member, who handles the mysterious activities which go on in the projection booth, his private domain, will come to your aid.

Opus

The girls who give Miss Kelly a hand in the school library and the students who play in the orchestra under the baton of Miss Sheel all have jobs which should be performed with accuracy and skill.

A slight mistake in the library files can disrupt the entire system and a book that's placed on the wrong shelf is frequently "lost" for weeks. Because of the efficiency of the library help, however, these things seldom happen and our school library is run very accurately. The library system is a very confusing one and requires a great deal of training for mastery.

Similarly, the striking of a few wrong notes can spoil an entire orchestra performance at an assembly or concert. Being a good orchestra member necessitates extensive practice, but this is to no avail if each member isn't skilled at his own instrument. These two requirements are met by the members of the Sullivan orchestra and the net result is good entertainment.

Copy!

How would we know who is where if it weren't for the Mimeograph Service This crew of sturdy workers takes care of the important job of making up the absence list each day. Sigmund Cohen sparks the crew, aided by Gerry Simon and Judy Jackoway.

Fingers flying over the keys, Barbara Lipman types the material; and neither rain, nor snow, nor sleet, nor ice can prevent Janice Simon, Mary Spyros, Roberta Roth, Sherlin Kowitt, and Joanne Patton from picking up the teacher's lists. Miss Fannie Kovitz sponsors the group.

Those lists of questions and outlines that appear with alarming regularity in some Social Science classes can be traced to the Mimeo Service. It also makes up tests, questionnaires, summaries, and other things requested by teachers. A hard job will done is the accolade we grant to this efficient service organization.

A mad rush every ninth period—reporters hurrying to get their copy in—editors groping through piles of copy to find the one certain paragraph that fits on the page.

The establishment of the SENTINEL policy —"more school spirit and better conditions."

"Talking It Over" with the sports writers for a fair picture of our sports life—the mysterious Ghost revived and haunting the school again—more activities and names.

Editorials advocating our policy — news, news, news.

All that, is your school paper and above you see the kids who do the writing, read the copy for grammatical errors, run back and forth to the printer, arrange the page, and write the headlines.

How proudly Dame Sullivan holds her head now as the seasons roll by. Fragrant hawthorne blossoms bedeck her in the spring, a full privet hedge and rich green grass make her beautiful in the summer, and her well-plowed walks are safer after the winter snows. What has happened? The SSS has brought back her self respect. The proceeds from the drives have been used to artistically landscape our school, to buy all needed tools and fertilizer, and to fence it all in.

What makes the sweet sounds we hear coming from the Social Room? The SSS piano. What makes our Tigers growl so happily? SSS subsidies. Why can our splendid SENTINEL come out so regularly? SSS funds, supplementing subscriptions. Why do visiting dignitaries remember Sullivan so pleasantly? Not only have their minds and spirits been fed on our performance, but their bodies have enjoyed good food furnished by SSS funds. SSS forever!

The locker room mirror reflects the good looks and happiness of a bevy of girls from the gym, hastily prettying themselves before the bell rings.

To the Ladies!

Echoing through the quiet halls come joyous shouts of laughter from the girls' gym. There, our agile athletes are vigorously playing basketball, volleyball, baseball, depending upon the season. They may not be experts but they enjoy themselves and meanwhile are developing skills. Some of these girls are leaders who assist the gym teachers to referee the games and helping to run the classes. The others are girls who are in the mood for a good game; and even a few gym teachers enter on the scene. The girls in their red tank suits enjoy a refreshing swim and often participate in a water ballet.

Besides their profound interest in sports they have an active interest in helping the needy. Every spring when the annual Easter seal campaign rolls around the Girls' Athletic department is always there to pitch in and collect money for the chippled children. In these various activities the Girls learn to get along with one another and to be good sports.

Easy to Follow

Smart! That's what they are! Smart in their outfits, and smart in their classrooms. And we think we are smart to have such groups of lithesome girls as the Majorettes, Cheerleaders (excuse me, boy!), and Gym Leaders. No wonder we follow eagerly the twirling, cheering, and whistling that leads us on to greater achievements on the field and in the classroom.

Tiger! Tiger!

With a g-r-r and a yawn, the fighting Sullivan Tigers will go into a summer's rest, hoping that next year's team will do as well or better than they did.

We all remember our football team fighting against Senn, Amundsen, Roosevelt, Lane, Schurz, and Waller. They might not have won every game, but we all know that they were out on the field fighting for the Gold and Blue. The Sullivan cagers, junior and senior, made us proud of them, trying to make that last swish when it was needed, and sometimes being successful. It was with a big splash that a pace was set for a second place in the December city meet. That also made our small but powerful swimming team show us that Sullivan had what it takes. The track team didn't have much of a chance to show their fangs, but both seniors and juniors had a place in the meet.

But alas, all goo dthings must end and we say good-bye to our graduating athletes, who fought so hard to see that Sullivan was on top. You will never forget Gray and Greene running those last few yards, or that long pass from Schachtel to Eschbach. There goes Richter through the line with Auerbach, Lee, and Greenfield making a hole big enough for a house. But what's in the future? Returning prospects like Kelinson, Rosenberg, Girtch, Rhen, Cole, Good, Hugo Kahn, and Sabel will make us proud of our football team.

The basketball team will suffer the loss of five good men, but will still have Foreman, Schwartz, Wishner, Rhen, and others to show their fangs and bite hard. The swimming team loses Captain Stu Brown, but keeps Baum and Young to show others the way to finish that long last stroke.

R.O.T.C. OFFICERS

R.O.T.C.

Up from the basement and into the recognition of Sullivanites has come the R.O.T.C. Members of the unit have taken part with outstanding success in Sullivan's athletic teams, dramatic club, honor society, and, in short, almost every extracurricular activity that Sullivan provides. In the course of the school year 1949-1950, they have covered themselves and Sullivan with honor and glory. The Sullivan Rifle team, under the direction of Sgt. Norman E. Gunderson and captained by Cadet Sgt. Stanley Hickory, has risen from twenty-fourth to ninth place in the city competition. The Crack Platoon, composed of Sullivan's best drilled cadets, was led by Cadet Capt. James Durbin to win third place in the district. The Color Guard, made up of Cadet Lt.-Col. Winkler, Lt. Krueger, M/Sgt. Shively, Sgt. Benge, and Corp. Peterson, has served Sullivan faithfully and has the reputation of being the finest on the North Side.

Cadet William Winkler won a position on the City Staff in both '49 and '50, first as a M/Sgt. and then as a Lt.-Colonel. He is now second ranking man of the 6,000 members of Chicago's R.O.T.C. He was Sullivan's first Lt.-Col. in six years and the highest man that Sullivan has placed on the City Staff since 1941. Cadet Winkler won a letter in football this season.

The results of these successes, coupled with the tireless efforts of the military instructors, Capt. George E. Clark and Norman E. Gunderson, have increased the enrollment in the unit fy fifty percent.

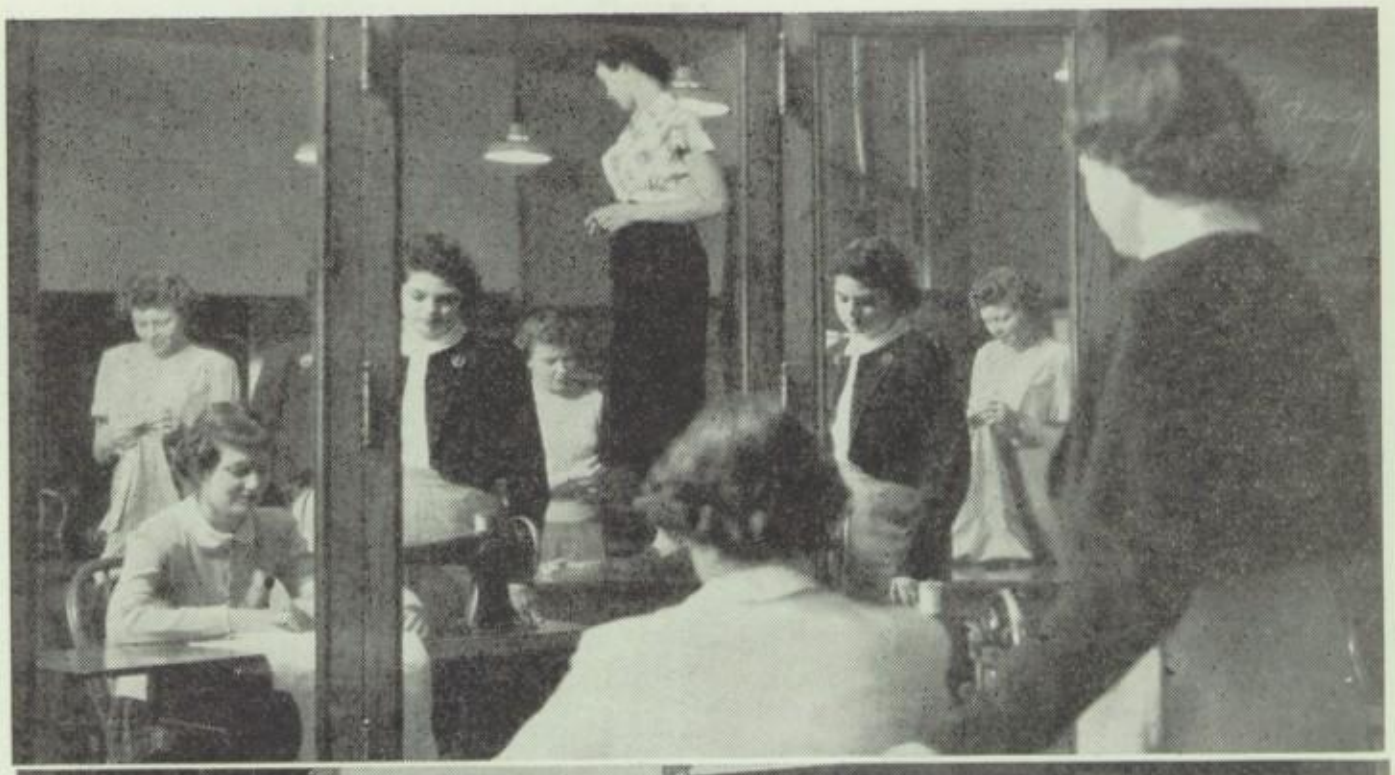
The R.O.T.C. has increased its services to Sullivan by forming a local chapter of the National Rifle Association early in 1949.

Membership has grown to fifty non R.O.T.C. students. A Girls' Rifle team was formed and, on the completion of sufficient training, it will be added to the N.R.A. Not to be forgotten, of course, are Sgt. Gunderson's widely famed Majorettes, who will continue to perform at the football games and parades.

The excellent instruction given by Capt. Clark and Sgt. Gunderson in map reading; small unit tactics, individual weapons, and hygiene and first aid helped to make Sullivan's unit outstanding at the Annual Spring Encampment which was held during spring vacation at Fort Sheridan. Cadets lived as soldiers for four days and experienced all the thrills of actual combat in the maneuvers.

Long to be remembered is the city-wide Military Ball, which to many is the outstanding social function of the year.

The good taste of Sullivan girls is reflected in the splendid work they do in their Home Arts classes.



No wonder we have the best jitterbugs in the country! Our dance band would dispel anyone's lethargy.

"Fight on Sullivan"

Here's a toast to the school we love best —
You will always come through in the test;
To the gold and the blue we will always be true
And we know you'll do the rest, HEY!

Chorus:
Fight on SULLIVAN, Fight on —
We'll beat the foe, so Sullivan come on;
We must never give in —
We can always win. RAH! RAH! RAH!
Come on Sullivan, come on —
We'll always fight on, Sullivan, fight on;
Then we're always sure to see another victory
So FIGHT ON, SULLIVAN, fight on.
